Each one-hour episode features two suspenseful true-life stories where unsuspecting everyday people witness their own workplace transformed into a crime scene. CRIMINALS AT WORK dissects the crimes from different points of views including co-workers who witnessed the mayhem, the reporters who covered the story, members of law enforcement officials who participated in the investigation, and psychologists who give insight into the criminal mind — this show takes viewers on a plot-twisting journey as if they witnessed it themselves. Not all crimes are committed by master career criminals, CRIMINALS AT WORK reminds everyone that the most innocent coworker could be hiding a deadly secret.

"CRIMINALS AT WORK" is Executive Produced by Rebecca Toth Diefenbach, Valerie Haselton, Brent Montgomery, and Christine Nusbaum for Sirens Media.
